Question/Answer

1 Question: How many times a month can I use this coaching? Are we restricted in any way?

Answer: As the coaching agreement states - coaching is unlimited! Bill prefers that you have your questions ready and leave a BRIEF message on the coaching line with your name and number. He will get back to you within 24 hours, if not sooner.

2 Question: When would my coaching start? Can I use it when I need too?

Answer: Coaching begins the day you purchase it, unless you work out a specific agreement with Bill. So, be ready! You can use the coaching for the term of your coaching purchase. For instance, there is a 1 month minimum, or you can invest in a longer term of 6 months of coaching, 9 months coaching, and 12 months coaching. Therefore, it depends on what you purchased. If you purchase the 3 months of coaching, it will begin at time of purchase and will be up for renewal in 90 days.

3 Question: Why would I want coaching?

Answer: Why wouldn't you? You will have one on one time with Bill to get all of your questions answered. He also teaches you how to talk to the banks and homeowners, to do BPOs and work with title companies. Imagine having Bill, on hand, to help you through your deals. He'll even conference call banks and sellers with you! There is nothing else like it on the market today.

Question: I have a short sale package ready to submit, I study the iDwan short sale system but still a wander if this short sale have a second whit teh same mortgage company do I need do to a second offer or just as them to void the second loan please guid me on this my e-mail is taryaidaohsner@yahoo.com thanks in advance for your help,please maybe is you have a number to call and explaing better will be terrific.

Answer: When dealing with a first and a second at the same bank, the bank will look at the situation like it is all their money because it is. You should call up the first and ask them how they want you to handle the situation. Some banks will want the loans consolidated into one offer and some will want them separate because different offices in some companies handle the loans separate. Make it the bank's choice.

Question: How much is the mentoring program?

Answer: Which mentoring program are you speaking of? We have one-on-one coaching and a year long Fast Track Program for the super serious investor.
